"Safe	Hou se "	(Project

- 1. Attached is an estimate from the Services Officer, concurred in by I&S and the Asst. Directors concerned for the acquisition, rehabilitation and improvement of real property to be utilized as a "safe house" in connection with CIA operations. The estimate is a maximum figure and actual expenditures would be several thousands of dollars less after negotiations have been completed.
- Recommend approval for expenditure of unvouchered funds to the extent necessary for this project but not in excess of the total estimate of $65,000 under circumstances indicated below:

- b. That the Services Officer act as intermediate agent for procurement.
- That the Aest. Director for Operations be initially charged with supervision and maintenance of the property and with coordinating its use with covert Asst. Directors and the Chief of IMS.
- d. That the Assistant Director for Operations submit prior to 30 June 1949 a project covering costs of operation of a "safe house" for the fiscal year 1950 and that such costs for the fiscal year 1951 be included in our budget for unvouchered funds.
- 3. Appropriate property records will be maintained by the covert Deputy Services Officer.
